SAYS BRIDES RESORT TO "ANY MEASURES"

*To Prevent Childbirth in Bridal Year—Blames Silly
Teachings of Mothers—Dr. Ogle of Indianapolis

Dr. Albert A. Ogle of Indianapolis today explained in detail to a Day Book reporter what he meant when he declared in a speech before the annual convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy that the teaching of some mothers caused brides to resort "to any measures" to prevent childbirth during the bridal year. Incidentally, Dr. Ogle took a rap at some members of the Daughters of the American Revolution who he declared had too many ancestors to brag about and nothing to speak of in the way of progeny.

"The day is past," said Dr. Ogle, "for us to hide the truth about the greatest of all God-given functions. Only the freest of language will stop the silly prudery of mothers whose teaching that motherhood during the bridal year is a disgrace and direct cause of untold anguish and unprintable perversions. When I said brides, and even some women who have long been married, resort to any measures to prevent childbirth, I meant just that—any measure."

"My investigations have led to talks with hundreds of physicians re-
